Karnataka Sales Tax (Amendment) Bill, 1978

Motion to Consider

† SRI S. M. YAHYA (Minister for Finance).—I beg to move:

"That the Karnataka Sales Tax (Amendment) Bill, 1978 be taken into consideration."

The Question was proposed

Sir, certain amendments are necessitated due to certain pronouncements and experience regarding the proper implementation of certain provisions. The main feature of the amendment is that certain multi-point should be transferred to single-point. A few items are taken to convert multi-point to single-point. This Bill helps to collect revenue and also helps to avoid cumbersome process.
